Come step back in time...

Step back to yesteryear... enjoy a more peaceful time and place.

MacDougall House offers the quiet times of bygone days without sacrificing modern niceties and conveniences.

Built in 1896, our Bed and Breakfast was originally known as the Northern Guest House. Reopened in 1993 as the MacDougall House, our mission today is to offer you a relaxing time in the tradition of days long past. Your escape begins immediately on arrival as you are embraced by the warmth of the Victorian architecture and décor. Relax on our wrap-around porch, immersed in the sweet sights and scents of our cottage gardens.

We offer five beautifully furnished rooms and one double room suite, all with private baths, wireless internet, television and air conditioning.

Recreational activities abound, all within a short walk or drive: golf, swimming, sailing, kayaking, bicycling, and downhill or cross-country skiing. Northern Michigan's shopping and dining venues can't be beat; you will find antiques, fashion, and fine art "downtown" and beyond, and can relax at any of a wide variety of casual and fine dining establishments once you've filled your shopping bags. The many festivals and events sponsored by local merchants, the local Chamber of Commerce, and the Convention and Visitors Bureau are sure to entice you away from your busy schedule to come stay with us for a visit.

Our full breakfast menu features an assortment of favorite family recipes complimented with an array of choices including yogurt, fresh fruit, granola, home-made bread and your favorite beverages. The MacDougall House breakfast is served family style in our dining room; we can also arrange a continental breakfast for guests who plan on setting out early to explore Northern Michigan.

Our room rates range from $90 to $160 per night, not including sales tax, based on double occupancy, and air beds are $15/person.

Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express cards are welcomed. (Prices effective January 1st, 2015)

We look forward to your stay with us!
